Urges That He Be Appointed Secretary Of War.

OTHER PLANS HINTED

Believe Philippine Post Is Marked For the General.

Marion, O., Jan. 14.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., arrived here early today to confer with President elect Harding. In January sixteen years ago, he hung about the White House and watched his father struggle with the formation of a cabinet. There he was not consulted and his advice was not asked. Today he not only discussed administration problems with the OUTLOOK UNCERTAIN next president, but faced the probability that he would be at least an assistant secretary in the next Report Several Revolutions cabinet.

It will be no novelty to have a Roosevelt in the cabinet. Procedent would place the younger member of the family as assistant secretary of the navy but it is regarded as enpossible that Teddy Jr. secretary of war.

It is deemed certain here that Colonel Roosevelt did not come to plead his own cause but to advocate in every way possible the appointment of General Leonard Wood as secretary of war. In the last two days, General Wood has been strongly urged for that post by other visitherent of his father's friend and comrade in arms throughout the pre-convention campaign and is known to feel himself still bound to the general by the strongest ties.

New York, Jan. 14.—A five story building—an old landmark— on Broad street, a block north of the stock exchange and the J. P.. Morgan offices, was swept by fire early this morning. After a hard. fight firemen succeeded in checking the blaze before it had spread to any other buildings. Damage was estimated at $50,-000. The fire started in the basement of the building which is. mainly occupied by a restaurant.

IF HARDING PLAYS THE GAME "IN THE GOOD OLD WAY" WE WILL BE HAPPY PEOPLE.

John Hay, who knew every President from Lincoln to Wilson, once said: "All Presidents-elect vowed on the morning aftre election pious resoltions that were as eggs scrambled into omelet long before March 4."

The most earnest resolutions, Lincoln's biographer said, were those taken with regard to the cabinet. Every new Presiwere those taken with regard to the cabinet. Every new President, meaning what he says when he says it, determines to have the defendant is represented by Mata cabinet of men whose sole claim to consideration is fitness.

What the country is anxiously waiting to see, judging by the echoes now reverberating from all quarters, is whether Warren G. Harding will or can unscramble the historica! omelet.

To the surprise, not to say the consternation, of the politicians he has revealed an evidently sincere purpose to do so. More than one of them has come off the front porch during the last four weeks assured of the President-elect's assumed readiness to play the old game in the good old way.

"In the good old way." Well, why not? If the election meant anything, it certainly spoke in unmistakable language that eight years of Wilsonism was all the country wanted of it for a long time to come.

In the "good old way." How could Mr. Harding better matters than to run this government in "the good old way" of Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt.

And, by the way, do you recollect of any President-elect who took more pains to learn the will of the people—to find public opinion-than Warren G. Harding has done? Noting John Hay's scrambled eggs illustration, is not this to Mr. Harding's credit? Has he not made good any "pious resolutions" he has made? Could you have done any better yourself?

FOREIGNERS CANNOT UNDERSTAND HOW WE DO THESE THINGS—SO WHY TELL THEM.

The selection last Monday by the electoral college of Warren G. Harding of Ohio and Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts to be respectively President and Vice President of the United States for the four years beginning March 4 of this year, gives occasion for congratulations to the eminent citizens upon whom the choice has fallen and to all Americans upon the smooth and perfect working of the governmental machinery by which the result was accomplished.

Apparently there was not the slightest hitch in the electoral college, no manifestation of party spirit and no contest worthy dance song "Dardanella" is the musthe name. The result indeed was accomplished on the first ballot, Mr. Harding and Mr. Coolidge receiving 404 of the 531 votes night under the management of the cast. The 127 votes remaining were cast for James M. Cox of Standard Amusement Company, ac-Ohio and Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York. The remarkable cording to the advance reports. fact that Mr. Harding and Mr. Coolidge received the same number of votes, and that Mr. Cox and Mr. Roosevelt also received an equal number attests the unanimity of opinion prevailing in the electoral body. It was almost as though the result had been ha other place. The company boasts determined beforehand.

Foreign observers no doubt will be astounded at the spectacle of 531 electors assembled in forty-eight states achieving such a prompt decision and with so little division. They will be puzzled to understand how the majority settled upon the candidates so quickly and by what process the minority reached the decision to give a complimentary vote to Mr. Cox and Mr. Roosevelt. Foreigners cannot be expected to understand how we do these things. So why tell them.

A CALL FOR BARABBAS.

When Pontius Pilate asked the crowd whether it would have Christ or Barabbas released, at the time of the Passover, the mob shouted for Barabbas.

John Robert Clynes, who has won the general respect of those who are sincerely seeking light on England's tangled social and industrial problems, was shouted down at a meeting of the unemployed, at Camberwell. "We want revolution!" they cried.

"We want Soviets!" Yet these men who cheered for the "communism" of Red Russia knew from the reports of their own brethren what things are done in Russia today to make life intolerable for the industrious, the respectable, the law-abiding. Th ey turn their back on the light and give their vote for Barabbas.

Such incendiaries consult only their own delirious desire for confiscation and destruction; they do not look beyond a present chance to take what they have not earned. They do not ask where Barabbas would lead them. They want him because they are tired of restraint, and he seems to promise a free rein to every lawless, brutal instinct.

We have some of the same people here, and some of them talk at parlor meetings, and some contribute money. But the friends of Barabbas can never be true friends and servants of the race.—Exchange.

THE HOBO.

There came a hobo to my door, as closed the winter day; he said his poor old feet were sore, he'd walked a weary way, and he would like a place to snore, a chance to hit the hay. I fed him victuals by the pail, his urgent need in mind; when he was filled he told a tale of fortunes most unkind; he said he'd like to earn some kale, if he a job could find. I said, "You've reached my humble den, I bid you linger here, and you may earn some iron men to round out your career; I need a man to herd my hen -I'll hire you by the year." And all the night I lay awake upbuilding pleasant plans; one homeless wanderer I'd take from ranks of also rans, and smooth the road for one poor Jake to whom Fate tied her cans. And in the morning, at his door I rapped, and cried, "Arise! The table groans 'neath grub galore, comprising prunes and pies; don't keep us waiting any more—you'll hustle if you're wise." But none responded to my call; the bo had wandered thence; when shades of night enshrouded all, he jumped my residence, and he had swiped my basket ball, the clothesline and the fence. Oh, most of us right gladly would relieve some human woe; but most of us at times have stood for things like this, you know, and if we tire of doing good, it's not surprising, bo!

Frank Townley and R. C. Ritenour, have brought suit against John Barton Paye Director General of Rail-Common Pleas Court, Thursday.

The plaintiffs are buyers and shippers of live stock, and, it is claimed in the petition on December 19, 1919. they delivered to the defendant at the freight yards at Cedarville, 20 beef cattle consigned to Chicago.

It is charged that the cattle were in splendid condition, but that while the car was being transferred from the Cedarville yards to the main track through the "grossest of negligence and carelessness of employes of the defendant, a collision occurred with other cars, resulting in the legs of two of the cattle being broken. The petition states these two cattle were then converted to the use of the defendant and the proceeds retained, while due to the effects of the wreck and a delay in reaching Chicago, the remaining 18 head fell off in weight join in the Communion services at the amounting to 25 pounds per steer.

The plaintiff firm seeks to collect ing. Automobiles will be at the West $525.30 for the loss of the two cattle, and $519.30 for the loss on the thews and Matthews of Dayton. The case was originally filed against the P. C. C. & St. L. Ry., but was withdrawn and refiled against the director

The meeting of the Women's Christians Temperance Union, held at the Second United Presbyterian Church, Thursday was attended by an audience that filled the church. Beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning the session lasted until four o'clock in the afternoon.

The meeting opened with the business ineeting of the members, but which the regular affairs of the ganization were attended to. outstanding moves taken by members at the meeting, were the resolutions to place the 10 Commandments in every school room in the Just as popular as was the great county, and the placing of the "No Tobacco Journal" in the hands of ganization is working in connection with the state and nation in this matter, the action being a National

The principal address of the morning meeting was that of Rev. T. M. Scarff. of Spring Valley, county dry manager in the recent dry campaign. Rev. Scarff gave a echo from the Law Enforcement Congress, recently held in Columbus, showing the need of interest of individuals in enforcing the new law, the result being the complete victory of prohibition. By request Mrs. C. P. Proudfit gave a blackboard talk on "The Results of Prchibition." Prohibition during and following the war were dealt with by Mrs. Proudfit with instances illustrating the topic being up.

Following Mrs. Proudfit's address. Mrs. Carrie Flatter, County President of the W. C. T. U., introduced Miss Mary Irvin of Cedarville the world's Loyal Temperance Legion's superintendent, who gave a short talk upon her acquaintance with the principal speaker of the meeting, Miss Agnes Slack of London, England, who was secured through the efforts of Miss Irvin to address the session. Miss Slack who is the world's secretary of the W. C. T. U. held the attention of her audience for two hours. Among the many interesting facts, recognized in her address, the influence of America with the soldiers, in Europe, and the need of prohibition in the foreign countries was dearly breaght out. At the close of her talk Miss Slack made an urgent apmeal for W. C. T. U. memberships, Miss Slack left Thursday night for Cedarville, where she addressed a mass meeting held there, in celebration of the first anniversary of national prohibition.

W E have been appointed as chairman and treasurer of the Greene County Branch of the European Relief Council.

Greene County's quota as apportioned by the Ohio Branch of said relief is $5,600.00, which it is estimated at $10.00 per head, will be sufficient to keep 560 children in Europe from starvation.

We here quote from a letter received by us from one of the most prominent business men of Ohio, as follows:

We are unable to personally canvass our county, and are compelled to ask the aid and co-operation of all organizations of the county, the churches, lodges and various societies, all contributions to be forwarded to our treasurer, H. S. LeSourd of LeSourd & Company of Xenia, Ohio, and in order to facilitate the canvass and organize the work, we have designated the following persons in each township as aides in this work to whom the contributions may be paid and forwarded to the county treasurer:

An absent-minded traveler was asked to stay a few days at a country house. His wife, realizing that he was to be the lion of the party.

he was to be the lion of the party, told him to be sure to put on a clean shirt every evening. She packed him one for each night.

When he returned she said:
"Well, I hope you remembered to put on a clean shirt every night."
"Oh, yes," he replied. "At this moment, counting the one I went away in, I've got four on."

Aunt Mary had been introduced to all the friends of the fauily while visiting her brother. Now, woman like, she was trying to discover if her niece "favored" any young man specially.

"That young Mr. Smarte, who comes here, seems r clever sort of a man, Maude," she began.

"Yes," replied Marde, "he is clever."

"What is he by profession?"
"A bit of a lawyer and a bit of a musician.' "But what is he, really?" asked aunty, puzzled.

"Well," explained the girl, "the lawyers say he is a musician, and the musicians say 'to is a lawyer." A short time ago Buster Keaton journeyed to Fresno, California, for "location" work. He was to meet Lou Anger at the station and the two were to trael via automobile to the "location." The train on which Keaton was traveling was not con-spicuous for speed and the come-dian lost no time in telling the conductor what he thought of the rail-"Well, if yer don't like it," the conductor remarked, "why in thunder don't yer get out an' walk?"

"I would," replied Keaton blandly, "but I'm not expected until this train gets in."

and are bred to high class boars, for March and April pigs. We raise 400 to 500 Hampshires each year and they are the best brood sows we have ever found. J. M. Ballard, of Indiana, in 1920, had 72 sows to raise him 654 pigs. They must be good mothers to do that.

ternational. The car lots in 1918 found the Hampshires selling $2.40 above the top price of any other show hogs. In 1919 they sold for $6.10 above the top of the market, a record never attained by any other breed. In 1920 the Hampshires sold for $4.50 per hundred above the market. The Hampshire car in 1920 was the youngest first-prize winning car in the show.

You may ask why, the reason is found in the fact that 14,300 new breeders bought their first registered Hampshires in 1920.

You have tried the rest now try the best. This is your chance.

can Brin Lustre with Sage Tea

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and trouble-some. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. IF HARDING PLAYS THE GAME "IN THE GOOD OLD WAY" WE WILL BE HAPPY PEOPLE.

The most earnest resolutions, Lincoln's biographer said, were those taken with regard to the cabinet. Every new President, meaning what he says when he says it, determines to have a cabinet of men whose sole claim to consideration is fitness. What the country is anxiously waiting to see, judging by the echoes now reverberating from all quarters, is whether Warren G. Harding will or can unscramble the historica: omelet. To the surprise, not to say the consternation, of the politicians he has revealed an evidently sincere purpose to do so. More than one of them has come off the front porch during the last four weeks assured of the President-elect's assumed readiness to play the old game in the good old way. "In the good old way." Well, why not? If the election meant anything, it certainly spoke in unmistakable language that eight years of Wilsonism was all the country wanted of it for a long time to come.

In the "good old way." How could Mr. Harding better matters than to run this government in "the good old way" of Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt.

And, by the way, do you recollect of any President-elect who took more pains to learn the will of the people—to find public opinion-than Warren G. Harding has done? Noting John Hay's scrambled eggs illustration, is not this to Mr. Harding's credit? Has he not made good any "pious resolutions" he has made? Could you have done any better yourself?

FOREIGNERS CANNOT UNDERSTAND HOW WE DO THESE THINGS-SO WHY TELL THEM.

The selection last Monday by the electoral college of Warren 1:30 o'clock. G. There came a hobo to my door, as closed the winter day; he said his poor old feet were sore, he'd walked a weary way, and he would like a place to snore, a chance to hit the hay. I fed him victuals by the pail, his urgent need in mind; when he was filled he told a tale of fortunes most unkind; he said he'd like to earn some kale, if he a job could find. I said, "You've reached my humble den, I bid you linger here, and you may earn some iron men to round out your career; I need a man to herd my hen—I'll hire you by the year." And all the night I lay awake up-building pleasant plans; one homeless wanderer I'd take from ranks of also rans, and smooth the road for one poor Jake to whom Fate tied her cans. And in the morning, at his door I rapped, and cried, "Arise! The table groans 'neath grub galore, comprising prunes and pies; don't keep us waiting any more-you'll hustle if you're wise." But none responded to my call; the bo had wandered thence; when shades of night enshrouded all, he jumped my residence, and he had swiped my basket ball, the clothesline and the fence. Oh, most of us right gladly would relieve some human woe; but most of us at times have stood for things like this, you know, and if we tire of doing good, it's not surprising, bo!

Greene County's quota as apportioned by the Ohio Branch of said relief is $5,600.00, which it is estimated at $10.00 per head, will be sufficient to keep 560 children in Europe from starvation.

In view of the fact that this relief is voluntary, and we must rely upon the aid of all citizens of our county to assist in this work, we appeal to the people of Greene County to respond voluntarily to this worthy cause.

We here quote from a letter received by us from one of the most prominent business men of Ohio, as follows:

"There is no cause than this of starving children that would make me drop entirely my own business at this time and voluntarily work night and day to upt Ohio over the top in her share of this movement, or ask you and other busy people to do the same."

We are unable to personally canvass our county, and are compelled to ask the aid and co-operation of all organizations of the county, the churches, lodges and various societies, all contributions to be forwarded to our treasurer, H. S. LeSourd, of LeSourd & Company of Xenia, Ohio, and in order to facilitate the canvass and organize the work, we have designated the following persons in each township as aides in this work to whom the contributions may be paid and forwarded to the county treasurer:

SOCIAL SERVICE

The extent of aid and service given by the Social Service League during the past year is shown in the report submitted by Mrs. Eber Reynolds, secretary of the organization. Through the increasing interest of the city organization and individuals the work of the League has extended. The poor of the city have been given un-limited benefits by the organization and additional help has been employed to take care of the growing service.

The following is the report which was read at the annual banquet and meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce by the workers of the League, Monday night:

Hampshire Sows Friday, January 28th, 1921

At Central Carage In Cedarville.

These sows represent the best blood-lines in the breed and are bred to high class boars, for March and April pigs. We raise 400 to 500 Hampshires each year and they are the best brood sows we have ever found.

J. M. Ballard, of Indiana, in 1920, had 72 sows to raise him 654 pigs. They must be good mothers to do that.

Hampshires have won the Grand Champion Carload lot for past three years in succession at the Chicago International. The car lots in 1918 found the Hampshires selling $2.40 above the top price of any other show hogs. In 1919 they sold for $6.10 above the top of the market, a record never attained by any other breed. In 1920 the Hampshires sold for $4.50 per hundred above the market. The Hampshire car in 1920 was the youngest first-prize winning car in the show.

You may ask why, the reason is found in the fact that they dressed from 85 to 90% of their live weight.

14,300 new breeders bought their first registered Hampshires in 1920. You have tried the rest now try the best.

This is your chance. Will be glad to mail catalog upon request.

Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush it and draw this through your taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark-ened, glossy and luxuriant. Gray, faded hair, though no dis-

Gray, faded hair, though no dis-grace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toi-let requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitiga-tion or prevention of disease.
